ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 48 months. This term consists of 24 months on Count 1 and 24 months on Count 26, to be served consecutively.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $37,706 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly installments of at least $150, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with codefendant, Alejandro Berdin, for $5,122 of the restitution ordered in this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;

8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court grants the Government's motion to dismiss all remaining counts of the Indictment.

The Court recommends that the defendant be placed at a Bureau of Prisons facility in Southern California. It is further recommended that the defendant undergo mental evaluation and treatment while in custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The bond is exonerated upon surrender to the United States Marshal.

The defendant is informed of her right to appeal.
